The "Green Seal'd" Home

Cottage, Bungalow, and great mansion—all alike need Hanna's Green Seal Paint occasionally. A home may be ever so costly, and of pleasing architecture, but it must be kept cleanly painted at all times to really be considered attractive.

Using Hanna's Green Seal Paint is not so much an expense as an investment. It pays back a good deal more than it costs—in protecting property, in beautifying it, and in its satisfactory service.

LIVINGSTON

S. E. Pennington, of London, was here on business Monday. John McWilliam, of near Level Green, was here between trains, Wednesday, en route home from London. Mr. McWilliam is one of the city's most progressive farmers, but at present is in very poor health. This is the first time that the writer has seen him since he left the Level Green. J. E. Weddall, traveling salesman, of London, Ky., was here between trains, Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Omary and two sons are spending a few days in London. The brick house that is being built by L. H. Davis' business partner is getting along fine, and it will not be long until there will be another house in town that we will be proud of. S. B. Holland, of Mt. Vernon, was here Saturday finishing up a job for J. P. E. Drummond. Mrs. Clara Griffin and aunt, Miss Ella Pennington, have returned from London. Rev. F. M. Jones, of East Bernstadt, filled his regular appointment at the Baptist church, Saturday and Sunday. Thomas Bonds, who recently moved here from East Bernstadt, and who has been quite sick for some time, died Sunday of that dread disease tuberculosis. He leaves a wife and one child and a host of friends to mourn his death. He was laid to rest Monday, in the family burying ground on Gabley Branch, with Junior Mechanic honors, of which he was a member. W. M. Brady is spending a few days in Lebanon Junction and Louisville. Geo. McComie, who has been quite sick for some time seems to grow weaker. Mrs. Maggie Martin has returned from a few days' visit with relatives at East Bernstadt. Last Monday a stranger came to town who looked like a German. He was all over town and at last the citizens became suspicious and he was arrested and searched but nothing was found on him. He left town. We claim this is a good policy. When strangers come to town they should give an account of themselves, and thereby save themselves a great deal of embarrassment. But the time has come when you have to keep a sharp lookout and sleep with one eye open, for you might take the bottomless pit of torment with a tin tooth comb and you would not find a better thing than a German. J. B. Donnell, the Irish operator, was in Stanford, Saturday. R. B. Gold, round house foreman, was in Corbin, Saturday. J. M. Poore had the misfortune to lose a fine cow this week. Mrs. John Graves, who has been visiting at Paris for a few days, has returned home. W. A. Warren was in Louisville, Saturday, to see his brother, Robert, who is stationed at Camp Taylor. Mrs. Le Roy Cox and children are at Lily this week with relatives. A little child of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Poff has been quite sick for a few days. Fishermen are doing a land office business now, and many are the fishy tales that are being told. L. H. Davis has located a vein of coal on his land just across Roundstone Creek, facing Livingston. The coal is thirty inches thick. Last Tuesday several autos were passing over the crossing in the north part of town at the Iron Bridge and one negro thought he would cross at the same time that train 37 came to the crossing, but there was a collision. The negro jumped and escaped injury but the machine rendered the machine unfit for service.

CAUSE OF HEADACHE

By knowing the cause, a headache may often be avoided. This is particularly true of headache. The most common cause of headache is a disordered stomach or constipation, which may be corrected by taking a few doses of Chamberlain's Tablets. Try it. Many others have obtained permanent relief by taking these Tablets. They are easy to take and mild and gentle in effect.

Life Was a Misery
Mrs. F. M. Jones, of Palmer, Okla., writes:
"From the time I entered into womanhood... I looked with dread from one month to the next. I suffered with my back and bearing-down pain, until life to me was a misery. I would think I could not endure the pain any longer, and I gradually got worse. Nothing seemed to help me until, one day, I decided to

TAKE CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

"I took four bottles," Mrs. Jones goes on to say, "and was not only greatly relieved, but can truthfully say that I have not a pain."
"It has now been two years since I took Cardui, and I am still in good health. I would advise any woman or girl to use Cardui who is a sufferer from any female trouble."
If you suffer pain caused from womanly trouble, or if you feel the need of a good strengthening tonic to build up your run-down system, take the advice of Mrs. Jones. Try Cardui. It helped her. We believe it will help you.

BROADHEAD

The Board of Trustees of the town of Broadhead at a regular meeting a few nights ago passed an ordinance prohibiting any one from "catching on" to running automobiles or any other vehicle, also prohibiting any one from molesting, or otherwise interfering with automobiles left standing on the streets, and the fine is two dollars. Every violation will be punished to the extent of the law, and besides there will be a committee to look after the violators and report it to the proper authorities. It is very embarrassing to see a crowd of boys, and often times girls, get best possible service rendered one of our boys while he is so far from home would be worth that amount. Your boy may need help, if he don't some mother's boy will. We must raise two thousand and five hundred dollars as a preliminary to the Great Red Cross drive which will come May 20th to 27th.

The Rockcastle County Chapter of American National Red Cross will put on a sale at public outcry all articles donated for that purpose in front of Red Cross headquarters at 1 p. m., on Monday, May 6th. They will offer live stock, farm and garden seeds, merchandise, home-made articles, souvenirs, relics, books, etc. Terms of this sale will be cash, and every cent realized will go to Army relief of the Red Cross.

A Business Should be as Big as Its Job

If bigness is of benefit to the public it should be commended.

The size of a business depends upon the needs which that business is called upon to serve. A business should be as big as its job. You do not drive tacks with a pile-driver—or piles with a tack-hammer.

Swift & Company's growth has been the natural and inevitable result of national and international needs.

Large-scale production and distribution are necessary to convert the live stock of the West into meat and by-products, and to distribute them over long distances to the consuming centers of the East and abroad.

Only an organization like that of Swift & Company, with its many packing plants, hundreds of distributing houses, and thousands of refrigerator cars, would have been able to handle the varying seasonal supplies of live stock and meet the present war emergency by supplying, without interruption:

First—The U. S. soldiers and the Allies in Europe by shipping as much as 800 carloads of meat products in a single week!

Second—The cantonments in the United States.

Third—The retailers upon whom the American public depends for its daily supply of meat.

But many people ask—Do producers and consumers pay too much for the complex service rendered?

Everyone, we believe, concedes the efficiency of the Swift & Company organization—in performing a big job in a big way at a minimum of expense.

Swift & Company's total profit in 1917 was less than 4 cents on each dollar of sales of meat and by-products. Elimination of this profit would have had practically no effect on live stock and meat prices.

Do you believe that this service can be rendered for less by any other conceivable method of organization or operation?

These questions and others are answered fully and frankly in the Swift & Company 1918 Year Book sent free on request.
